WHITEHEAD, Guysborough County

The three settlements which make up this settlement are located on the west side of Whitehaven Harbour on the eastern shore of Nova Scotia. It was probably so named because of the color of the rock formations at the entrance to the Harbour. The lower settlement is also called "Lower Whitehaven." Some of the early settlers were: Moses Cohoon from Queens County in 1818, Thomas Munroe, John Munroe and Robert Spears from Shelburne in 1819 and William DeMings from Shelburne and Mr. Coffin and Mr. Duff from Tusket in 1820.

Holy Trinity Anglican Church was built in 1888 and consecrated November 15, 1894. The exterior of a Methodist Church was completed by August, 1881.

A school was built about 1868. A new school was built in 1893. A school was built at Upper Whitehead in 1905. A postal way office was established in 1856. The lighthouse on Whitehead Island was erected in 1854. Fishing is the main industry. A wharf was constructed in 1875 and in the early 1950's Tor Bay Canning Company built a processing plant at Whitehead. Population in 1956 was: Whitehead 98, Upper Whitehead 68, Lower Whitehaven, 125.

BESSIE LEIGH FELTMATE

Mrs. Angus Feltmate, White Head, Dec 31 - There passed away at midnight December 24, in Eastern Memorial Hospital, Mrs. Angus Feltmate in her 84th year. Although in failing health for some time her passing came as a shock to her relatives and friends. She was the last surviving member of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Munroe.

All her life was spent in this community where she gave of her time and talent, having been church organist at Grace United Church since her early teens. She was also Sunday School Superintendent and teacher for many years and also a valued member of the UCW.

She is survived by her husband in his 90th year, also by four sons, Harry and Austin, of this community, Everett of Port Morien C.B. and Donald of Halifax; by two daughters (Ada) Mrs. Vernon Munroe of Halifax and (Dora) Mrs. Lawrence Snyder of Sheet Harbour; by 15 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

One daughter predeceased her in infancy.

Many nieces and nephews also survive.

The burial service took place from Grace United Church with Rev D L Nicol of Guysborough officiating at the Church as well as at graveside.

Mrs. Ira George of Upper White Head was organist and hymns sung were "Safe In The Arms of Jesus" and "Abide With ME." The choir sang the anthem, "Out of my Bondage" which was a favourite of the deceased.

Pallbearers were four sons, Harry, Austin, Everett and Donald and two sons-in-law, Vernon Munroe and Lawrence Snyder.

Interment was in the United Church cemetery with undertakers, Rhynolds of Queensport in attendance.
